Fra ler til luksus

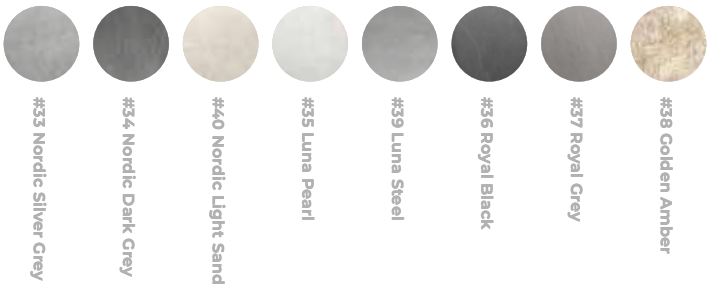

Keramiske porcelænsfliser består af kaolinitler, feldspat og kvarts. Efter at være presset under enormt tryk i en form, brændes fliserne i ovne hvor temperaturen langsomt bliver varmet op til 1200 – 1400° C. Derefter afkøles ovnen hurtigt, hvorved leret omdannes til glas. Denne proces hedder sintring. Det er denne grundige og præcise proces, der fører til flisernes luksuriøse finish, som kun kan beskrives som ægte kunsthåndværk.

Teksturgrad

Teksturgraderne skal udelukkende ses som vejledende information. Scandi-Roc ApS kan ikke holdes ansvarlig for eventuelle afvigelser mellem den faktiske fliseoverflade og den beskrevne teksturgrad. Vi råder vores kunder til altid at foretage en visuel og fysisk vurdering af produktet, for at bekræfte teksturgraden under de specifikke forhold, hvor fliserne skal benyttes.

Skridsikkerhed

Vær opmærksom på, at de angivne ramp rater er udelukkende vejledende. Scandi-Roc ApS fralægger sig ethvert ansvar for eventuelle faldulykker eller andre skader, der måtte opstå som følge af manglende skridsikkerhed. Scandi-Roc ApS anbefaler til hver en tid at foretage en grundig vurdering og evt. egen testning af fliserne under relevante forhold, inden de anvendes i praksis.

SCANDIROC

DANISH STONE DESIGN

Vi har knoklet for at gøre dette katalog så inspirerende og informerende som mulig.

Men nogle gange kan livet (og trykssvæerte) overraske lidt. Produkter fremstillet af naturmaterialer kan variere i farve, tekstur og finish, så hvis noget virker anderledes i kataloget end i virkeligheden, kan det skyldes at naturen har sin egen plan, og giver hver flise sit unikke touch. Har vi fået skrevet noget vrøvl, så gør os endelig bare opmærksomme på det, så vi kan få rettet fejlen.

Har du spørgsmål?

Smut forbi vores website eller giv os et kald.

Vi elsker at snakke (fliser)!
